Class Teacher's Comment

Brian-Prosper is a highly motivated and enthusiastic pupil who has improved greatly over the term, especially in the areas of identification, writing numbers and letters. He is very creative in carrying out his work especially in the areas of drawing and colouring. Great job!

Recommendation

I would like to take this opportunity to encourage him to continue to work on associate letters to objects, blending , spelling words under the supervision of an adult for at least 30 minute daily for better performance in the next class.
