Class Teacher's Comment

Deborah has consistently showed improvement in learning, especially in counting, reciting and in linking sounds to objects and animals in the class. She is working very hard in the areas of identifying letters and numbers and in making proper formation of letters and numbers.

Head Teacher's Comment

Well done!! Deborah i see you doing better in your next class

Recommendation

Consistent practice of tracing and saying the proper formation of letters and numbers will enhance her writing skill and pencil grip. Visual aids such as letters and numbers chart should be provided and place in strategic position at home as this serve as a reminder to recognize and recall the correct letters and numbers.
