Class Teacher's Comment

Michael is an excellent participant in classroom activities. He has demonstrated a high level of comprehension of lessons thought from his responses. He can identify shapes, numbers, letters and colours.

Recommendation

One thing that Michael should continue to work on is his pencil grip. Videos that are educative should also be made available for him to help him learn more.

Head Teacher's Comment

He is becoming a stronger participant in class discussions and he seems more enthusiastic about learning new things.
