Class Teacher's Comment

I am delighted to see the remarkable progress Frank has made across all the learning areas, he has insatiable curiosity and dedication to learning which has reflected in his ability to recite, count, and in linking sounds to objects and animals in the class. he is making effort to trace and identify his letters and numbers correctly. He is also able to remember details and information from story.

Head Teacher's Comment

Frank is a very sharp and enthusiastic student, I wish you the best in your next class.

Recomendation

Frank should be encouraged in the area of writing and identifying letters and numbers by their names, this can be achieved by consistent practice of saying and making formation of letters and numbers as this will aid his ability to write in his next class.
